DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 27 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 6,115,230 to Voigts et al. in view of U.S. Patent No. 6,477,021 to Haun et al..

Regarding claim 27, Voigts et al. disclose monitoring the current associated with the electro-kinetic system (column 3 lines 21-21) and shutting down the electro-kinetic system when the current reaches a threshold based on an air flow setting (column 3 lines 32-49). Voigts et al. does not disclose incrementing a first count each time a monitored current value reaches a current threshold or a count threshold. Haun et al. disclose an arc fault detection system including incrementing a first count each time a monitored current value reaches a current threshold (column 5 lines 60-63) and shutting down/removing power to a system when the first count reaches a first count threshold (column 5 lines 24-29, 64-67). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to include incrementing a first count each time a monitored current value reaches a current threshold and a count threshold as taught by Haun et al. into Voigts et al. for the purpose of providing increased measurement capability.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-22, 24-26 and 28-42 is are allowed.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a).

Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
